Steps for Tournament Allotment

This document explains the application process, organizer eligibility and venue requirements for BUDCA tournament allotment and recommendation to KSCA. Organizers should complete the process below before publicly circulating the tournament prospectus.

Organizer eligibility

The organizer must be a registered organization or entity with a valid bank account and PAN. Individual organizers are not eligible. First-time organizers must submit their registration documents to BUDCA for verification.

Application and approval process

1. Check the KSCA and BUDCA event calendars for available dates.

4. Send the completed and signed BUDCA and KSCA Tournament Allotment Forms, together with proof of both fee payments, to budcachessevent@gmail.com. On verification, BUDCA will issue its event code and recommend the event to KSCA for issuance of the KSCA event code.
5. Clearly display the BUDCA event code in bold on the tournament prospectus and banner.
6. Send the tournament prospectus to budcachessevent@gmail.com for approval.
7. Circulate the prospectus publicly only after it has been uploaded to the BUDCA or KSCA website.
8. Submit the tournament report and photographs of the inauguration, closing ceremony and players in action within three days of completion, for publication on the BUDCA website.

Please Note:

Cancellation policy: Fees will not be refunded or adjusted if the tournament is cancelled.

An event code is allotted only to the approved organizer for the approved tournament, dates and venue. It must not be transferred, lent or used by another organization. Any change in organizer, tournament name, dates or venue must receive prior written BUDCA approval before publicity or conduct of the event.

BUDCA may seek a written explanation for unauthorized use of an event code. Any withdrawal of approval or restriction on future allotments should follow a procedure approved by BUDCA and communicated to the organizer.

All submitted requests will be reviewed and subsequently forwarded to KSCA within a timeframe of 2-3 business days following their initial submission.
